A Lincoln county couple who have been married for forty years and have seven grown children, have decided to split blankets and are now making a fifty-fifty division of the property. Strange, isn't it, that a married couple can bear with each other's short comings for forty years, and then decide the burden too great. Perhaps each decided that they wanted to pass their remaining years in peaceful tranquility.

NEILS RASMUSSEN DIES SUDDENLY LAST NIGHT

Neils Rasmussen, late clerk in the First National bank, and for many years connected with the Union Pacific station force, died suddenly last night. About midnight he was attacked by a severe pain in the back of his head and a physician summoned, but before the latter arrived Mr. Rasmussen had passed away. While the case was not thoroughly diagnosed last night, the supposition is that death resulted from trouble of an apopleptic nature—probably a clot of blood on the brain.

The deceased had worked as usual at the freight house yesterday and had made no complaint as to not feeling well.

Bereft is the wife, a daughter of seventeen who graduated from the high school last year, and a son twelve years old.

No arrangements for the funeral have been made at this writing.

IS HOAGLAND IN RECEPTIVE ATTITUDE FOR GOVERNOR?

A special appearing in today's Bee dated at O'Neill yesterday says:

"State Senator Walter V. Hoagland of North Platte will be a candidate for the republican nomination for governor if enough of his friends urge him to enter the primaries. Mr. Hoagland made a trip up the Northwestern line last week, stopping off between trains in O'Neill, and said the people of his part of the state were not exactly pleased with any of the candidates openly announced so far."

If Senator Hoagland is in a receptive attitude he has failed so far to inform his friends at home, but if he decides to be a candidate we will do our best to land him the nomination.
